

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2669 - HB 2613

February 5, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Amends certain sections of the Tennessee Code relative to the handling of criminal injury claims that are in the jurisdiction of the Tennessee Claims Commission. Restricts these claims to the small claims docket only, unless removed properly, and remove appeal provisions relative to decisions of the Claims Commission.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

MINIMAL

Provides continuation in the handling of Criminal Injury claims docketed with the Claims Commission. This change deletes the need to have Criminal Injures claims on a regular docket unnecessarily just because of the total or allowable amount of damages requested by the claimant.
